

Craft Cocktails

Prohibition Manhattan $9.50

Al Capone's favorite, Templeton Rye Whiskey, perfectly blended with the world's oldest vermouth recipe- Antica Formula 1786

Speak Easy $9.50

Old Fashioned made with Templeton Rye Whiskey, muddled orange and cherry, a little sugar and a dash of bitters

Palmetto $9.50

12 year old Zaya Gran Reserve Rum., Antica Formula Vermouth and a splash of Pineapple

Antonio-jito $9.50

*Antonio's twist on the Mojito~
12 year old Zaya Gran Reserve Rum, a little mint, a little citrus and a little sweetness*

Americano $9.00

The first drink ordered by James Bond in Ian Fleming's Casino Royale; A mix of Campari and Antica Formula, splashed with Club Soda

Whatsa Matta U? $9.00

Teeling Irish Whiskey shaken with Bailey's Irish Cream and Borghetti Caffè Espresso, topped with a smooth splash of cream

1786 Martini $9.00

In 1786, Antonio Benedetto Carpano developed the world's first Vermouth. Blended with your favorite Vodka, Carpano Bianco makes the finest classic Martini

Espresso Martini $9.00

Vanilla Vodka, Borghetti Caffè Espresso liqueur and Lavazza Super Crema Espresso. Well shaken and well deserved

Borghetti Star $9.00

Borghetti Caffè Espresso and Borghetti Sambuca Oro on the rocks. Sip and say ahhh!

Aperitivo Cocktail $9.00

Whet your appetite with this refreshing blend of Aperol, Carpano Bianco Vermouth and mouth watering Grapefruit

Aperitivotini $9.00

Simply put...Aperol and Carpano Bianco. Enjoy!

Bellini $9.00

*The Original recipe from Harry's Bar in Venice, Italy.
Sparkling Nino Franco Prosecco and Cipriani Peach nectar*

Negroni $9.00

Gin, Campari and Antica Formula, muddled orange and a club soda splash

Alcatraz $9.00

Templeton Rye Whiskey, Campari, Borghetti Sambuca Oro and Antica Formula. Finished with fresh orange garnish